

AUSFILM TELEVISION WEEK LONDON

Producer Expression of Interest

Ausfilm is pleased to announce Ausfilm Television Week - to be held in London from October 13th to 16th, 2013. Ausfilm is hosting this targeted event, post MIPCOM, to develop co-production opportunities between Australian and UK producers for high-end television drama and animation productions.

The event schedule will feature meetings for Australian producers with UK counterparts for specific co-production projects that hold international appeal. These meetings will focus on the development of current projects with a view of co-production/finance/sales and will be established through in-depth profiling and matchmaking.

Ausfilm Television Week London 2013 will also comprise networking experiences and learning opportunities to develop and foster strong growth between the Australian and UK television and film industries.

Application process:

To apply to participate in Ausfilm Television Week London please complete the form below and return to Kristy Officer (kristy.officer@ausfilm.com.au) along with your state screen agency in copy*.

The deadline for applications is Friday 16th August 2013.

Attendee numbers are limited and successful Australian applicants will be notified by Ausfilm on 23rd August 2013.

Please note there are no participation fees for Ausfilm Television Week London, however producers will need to arrange travel to London and will be expected to cover own costs of London accommodation and incidentals.

Any questions can be directed to Kristy Officer, Head of Marketing – Ausfilm:
